Respondents

Sl.No	Date of Proceeding	Proceeding of the Commission with signature	Office action taken with date
1	2	3	4
03	23.01.2015	An application has been filed today on behalf of the petitioner praying for an interim order against the bill served on them for the month of December 2014. The learned counsel for the respondents prays for two weeks time to file rejoinder. The learned counsel for the respondents submitted that the Counter Affidavit to the main petition is also ready and it has been transmitted for vetting and is likely to be filed within that period. On that ground also he prays for two weeks time. Mr. Mittal, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that the respondents have served a monthly bill for the month of December 2014 showing arbitrary amount of arrear as well as Delayed Payment Surcharge. He prays for keeping the bill in abeyance till final hearing of the petition. The learned counsel for the respondents opposed the prayer and submitted that a copy of the application has been served on them only today and an opportunity should be given to them for filing rejoinder before passing any order on merit of the application.

Considering the above, two weeks time is allowed for the purpose of filing Counter Affidavit to the petition as well as rejoinder to the application filed today.

Put up on 9.2.2015 at 2.30 PM.

Till then no coercive action shall be taken by the respondents on the basis of the bill, if the petitioner deposits the amount of the current charges.
