8	23.10.2010	This case was kept pending awaiting the orders of the Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal for Electricity in Appeal No. 40 of 2008 filed by the distribution licensee-JSEB challenging the order dated 11.1.2008 passed by the Commission in connected matters being Case Nos. 04(X)/2007-08, Case No. 04(XI)/2007-08 and Case No. 20/2007 relating to rural electrification. This case has been filed by the villagers of Odeydaru, P.O. & P.S. Sonahatu in the district of Ranchi for not providing the electricity to them by the distribution licensee-JSEB. In view of the affidavit of Compliance Report filed on behalf of the distribution licensee-JSEB before the Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal, the aforesaid Appeal No. 40 of 2008 has been disposed of by the Hon'ble Tribunal by its order dated 7.4.2010. While disposing of the said appeal, it has been observed by the Hon'ble Tribunal that "In the meantime, if any of the villagers notice that the order has not been complied with, it is open to them to approach the Commission, which in turn, can approach this Tribunal to take further action against the concerned". After disposal of the said appeal by the Hon'ble Tribunal, the villagers of Odeydaru, P.S. Sonahatu in the district of Ranchi have filed the instant petition before the Commission stating

therein that though the distribution licensee-JSEB has received applications and security deposit and estimate cost for providing electrical connection from fifty-eight (58) villagers in the year 2004 itself but the licensee-JSEB has not provided them with the electrical connection even after lapse of more than six years.

In view of the above, the distribution licensee-JSEB is directed to show-cause within 15 days as to why the applicants of Odeydaru village have not been provided with the electrical connection even after lapse of six years despite the fact that the applicants have deposited the application fee, security deposit and estimate cost.

Put up on 9.11.2010 for further orders awaiting show-cause.
