

JHARKHAND STATE ELECTRICITY REGULATORY COMMISSION
RANCHI

Methodology on “switching of consumers from one distribution licensee to other in the same area.”

ORDER
(20.07.2007)

To get supply of electricity by another licensee of the area the following procedure shall be followed:-

1. Those who are existing consumers have to get their service disconnected and for that there is a provision in Para 7.5 of the Electricity Supply Code Regulation 2005 of the Jharkhand State Electricity Regulatory Commission. Once the condition is fulfilled the consumers can switchover.

2. As regards the case of consumers with disputed bills which are pending in any competent forum or in the court of law the existing consumers and the second licensee will give the undertaking for the amount under dispute, or bank guarantee for that amount, and following thereafter the same procedure laid down in Para 7.5 of the Supply Code, consumer can get his service connection disconnected and switchover to the other licensee. Once the conditions are fulfilled for the disconnection but the existing licensee does not issue the NOC, then after 15 days from that date it will be treated that NOC has been issued.
