Proposals will be ranked according to their combined technical (St) and financial (Sf) scores using the weights of 0.7 for Technical Score and 0.3 for the Financial Score ($S = St * 0.7 + Sf * 0.3$). The firm achieving the highest combined technical and financials core will be invited for negotiations for award of contract.

5. AWARD OF CONTRACT

5.1 JSERC's Right To Accept Any Bid And To Reject Any Or All Bids:

JSERC reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bid process and reject all bids at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Bidder or any obligation to inform the affected Bidders or Bidder of the grounds for JSERC's action.

5.2 Negotiation:

5.2.1 The firm scoring the highest combined technical and financial score will be invited for negotiations. The aim is to clarify all points and to finalize the draft agreement.

5.2.2 Negotiations will include a discussion on the Technical Bid, proposed methodology (Work plan), staffing pattern and suggestions made by the firm to formulate the Terms of Reference. The JSERC and firm will then work out final Terms of Reference including staffing, periods to be spent in the field and in the home office, staff-months, logistics, and reporting as also the inputs required from the JSERC to ensure satisfactory implementation of the assignment. Final Terms of Reference will then be incorporated in the contract.

5.2.3 Having selected the firm on the basis of, among other things, an evaluation of proposed key professional staff; the JSERC expects to negotiate a contract on the basis of the experts named in the proposal. Before contract negotiations, the JSERC will require assurances that the experts will be actually available.

5.2.4 The negotiations will conclude with the finalization of the draft contract. If the negotiations with the firm as above fails, JSERC will invite the short listed firm who has secured the second highest combined score to negotiate a contract.

5.3 Contract Agreement:

5.3.1 Before signing of the Contract Agreement, the consultant shall submit irrevocable bank guarantee towards contract performance security for the amount of ten percent (10%) of the total value of the contract valid up to ninety (90) days beyond the scheduled date of completion of assignment.

5.3.2 Following negotiations, JSERC will notify the successful Bidder in writing by registered letter or by fax to be confirmed in writing by registered letter that his bid has been accepted and requesting the successful bidder to execute the contract agreement within the specified time period after furnishing requisite Performance Guarantee (security) as per Clause 5.3.1 above. Failure on the part of successful BIDDER to execute Contract Agreement within time as informed by JSERC may lead to cancellation of contract and forfeiture of Earnest Money.

5.3.3 The successful bidder shall maintain secrecy of all sources/information/data connected with the project. The successful BIDDER shall furnish bond of confidentiality of data/information handed over to them or processed by them for undertaking their consultancy job.

- 5.3.4 In course of undertaking consultancy job, the successful bidder shall have to submit required papers/reports/studies in hard copy as well as soft copy more than one copies as desired by JSERC.
- 5.3.5 It is the JSERC's policy to require that bidders observe the highest standard of ethics during the selection and execution of such contracts. JSERC will cancel the firm's contract if at any time it is found that corrupt or fraudulent practices were engaged in by the representatives/staff of the firm.
- 5.3.6 The successful bidder shall be responsible for all patent infringements for the scope of supplies and services provided by them.
- 5.3.7 Any dispute in connection with the BID shall be subject to jurisdiction of Jharkhand High Court.
